

Studying and Researching in Germany

daad.de	all information about studying in Germany
research-in-germany.de	easy access to information on the research landscape of Germany
hochschulkompas.de	search engine for all study programmes, higher education institutions, and relevant addresses
anabin.de	Assessment of Certificates and Diplomas  Your pre-graduate high school diploma (from 2016) in connection with the state maturity certificate gives you the right to study in all subjects at a university in Germany.
sprachnachweis.de	In order to study in Germany, you will need evidence of your knowledge of either German or English
testdaf.de	TestDaF is being recognized by all German universities as an official proof of your German language proficiency.
make-it-in-germany.de	Comprehensive information about applying, studying, and higher institutions as well as living in Germany.
uni-assist.de	Application Services for International Students Information on application procedures
Study-in.de	Clearly provides information to all questions related to the application procedure and gives a general orientation regarding the studies.
funding-guide.de	Scholarship database of the DAAD funding opportunities and other funding organizations